Afternoon Dispatches WASHINGTON.

EXAMINING BILLS.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The President, accompanied by 4.is Cabinet and private secretary, came to his room at the Senate, and remained until adjournment, examining a large mass of bills previous to approval. The President signed the general appropriation bills, none of which failed. Three or four private bills were lost for warf of time examine them. The bill to equalize the bounties of soldiers who served in the late war failed to become a law, the President withholding his signature. If the bounties of soldiers who served in the late war falled to become a law, the President withholding his signature. If the time had allowed he would have sent in a veto message. The President and Cabinet did not think this a proper time to make so large an appropriation on account of bounties. Members of Congress were flying in all directions with bills, hurrying to have them signed by the respective officers of the two houses and then sent to the President's room for his approval. The claimants in the lobbies showed much anxiety, and there were hundreds of mournful faces when Congress adjourned, for some of the disappointed ones had been here at previous sessions as well as the one just closed, endeavoring to attain their ends. The river and harbor appropriation bill is now a law. The bounty bill was lost in the Senate, being laid on the table, on motion of Sprague, by a vote of yeas 30, motion of Sprague, by a vote of yeas 30, any 24. The reports of the conference committees on all the appropriation bills ave been agreed to in the Senate and he bills passed.

the bills passed.

The House election or force bill was read a first and second time in the Senate Beyond this the Senate took no further action, it therefore failed. The first ruling made by the Internal Revenue De-ing made by the Internal Revenue De-partment under the provision of the new tax and inriff law was in reference to the time of the taking effect of the new rates on spirits and tobacco, and was as follows: Spirits produced in cistern room or warehouse prior to midnight on the 3d inst, will be liable to a tax of seventy cents per gallon. After that time collect-tors are instructed to make a requisition on the Dengtment for minety cent stamps tors are lastructed to make a requisition on the Department for ninety cent stamps for spirits produced after that date. To-bacco and eights in the hands of manufacturers legalty packed and properly stamped prior to midnight of the 3d inst. will be charged at the old rate of twenty cents, but after that time a tax of twenty-four cents will be imposed.

TILTON-BEECHER.

New York, March 4.—The Brooklyn City Court room was crowded as usual this morning, and Mrs. Putnam resumed her testimony as follows: I went in the summer of 1866 to Southport, Conn., where Mrs. Tilton and her children were, and Tilton was also there. On one occasion Tilton was in a very unhappy mood and in low spirits, which made us all very uncomfortable. Mrs. Tilton gave me a letter for Tilton, which I deflivered. I was aware of its contents. Mrs. Tilton then asked me to come up to her room and hear Theodore apologize for his gloominess during the past three days. I was unwilling at first, but finally went. Tilton said he was afraid he had NEW YORK, March 4 .- The Brooklyn Tilton said he was afraid he had us all very uncomfortable by his ct, but said that he really couldn't

At this point Mr. Juffrey's, the juror who was unwell yesterday, announced to Judge Nellson that he was ill, and the Court decided to adjourn until-2 o'clock.

The Court re-assembled at 2 o'clock, but owing to the continued sickness of Mr. Jaffreys an adjournment was taken until Monday next.

Owing to the light sales of cattle this week the market showed considerable firm-ness throughout, though without any spe-cial activity at any time. Prices may be marked up ½c on all grades, the figures marking the sales being little if any higher than last week, but the difference throughout the list being observable in the quality of the offerings.
